

GGTA NEWS

Keep up with the goings-on of the Golden Gateway Tenants Association

Get Neighborhood News Online on the GGTA Website

GGTA's new website (goldengatewaytenants.org) is chock full of information about our group, how it was formed, what we do, accomplishments, neighborhood news and updates, past newsletters, contact information and historic photos of the Gateway area.

You can also use our site to easily join or renew your membership (only $30 a year).

Join Us for First Tuesday Socials

GGTA members and those planning to join GGTA are invited to attend our First Tuesday monthly socials at a local watering hole.

Location and time (usually 5-7 p.m.) are announced in the GGTA e-newsletters that all members receive and on Nextdoor.

We'll have signup forms on site, or you can join online:

goldengatewaytenants.org

Attend the Annual Membership Meeting

We hope to see all Golden Gateway Tenants Association members (and those wishing to join GGTA) at the annual membership meeting at 10 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 25, at L'Olivier Restaurant, 465 Davis Court.

District 3 Supervisor Aaron Peskin will speak on current events at City Hall and issues expected to arise in 2017. Gateway resident and chair of Friends of Golden Gateway (FOGG) Lee Radner will report on the State Lands Commission lawsuit, set for decision in the near future, that seeks to abolish our voter-approved height limits on the waterfront.

Outgoing GGTA president Bill Hannan will summarize the proposed affordable housing development at 88 Broadway, the proposed Teatro ZinZanni hotel and dinner theater at (continued on reverse side)

Not a Member? Please Join Today!

As we noted on page one, you can easily join GGTA on our website at: goldengatewaytenants.org

However, if you prefer to send a check, please fill out the form below and mail it with your check for $30 to GGTA, P.O. Box 2134, San Francisco, CA 94126.

Name:

Building and Apartment Number:

Email address:

Phone number:

Check enclosed ($30) _____

Referred by (optional):

Broadway and the Embarcadero, the condominiums under construction at Battery and Pacific, and the proposed hotel and condominiums at 447 Battery where Cort Furniture is now. He'll also speak on security issues and ask for a volunteer to serve as security liaison.

GGTA nominating committee chair Desa Belyea will announce the slate of officers and directors for the coming year. Also, social chair Kim Breeden will report on our schedule of social events, which, thanks to energetic new board members, should be prolific and diverse this year.

Keep Up on Neighborhood News Online

Did you know our board is extremely active in neighborhood affairs that affect the Gateway and the quality of life in our complex and surrounding community?

We keep a keen eye on civic happenings and developments, and regularly attend community meetings.

Learn more about what we do for you by going to our website at goldengatewaytenants.com and clicking on "News & Issues." Here are some recent stories:

"What Have We Done for You Lately? Plenty!"

"Neighborhood Groups Oppose Extended Hours for Strip Clubs"

"More Sewer Work to Start This Summer"

... and much more! Also look for notices on Nextdoor.

